

Amos, Fletcher, Hunter net Pigskin honor

Staff Report

Tylor Amos, Sara Fletcher and Rodney Hunter are the latest Middletown High School senior athletes to be honored as Pigskin Roundball athletes of the month.

➤ Amos was the choice in December. He is the son of Kim Amos and participated in football, basketball and track. He carries a 3.78 GPA and is a member of the Young Life club, as well as volunteering in the community with MidFest, All American weekend and as a care packer for the troops.

Amos' football honors include being named to the Greater Miami Conference second team (2006-07), the Division I Southwest District honorable mention (2005-06) and the All-GMC

Tylor Amos

Academic team.

Amos will continue his education and football career at Wayne State University.

➤ Fletcher has received eight varsity letters for participating in swimming for four year, golf for three years and cross country her senior year.

Fletcher is the daughter of Sandy and Bruce Fletcher and carries 4.25 GPA. Fletcher was named the swim team's Most Valuable Player in 2004, 2005 and 2006. She has set several school records including the most recent one as a member of the 2007 400-yard freestyle relay team.

Sara Fletcher

She has also been a Division I district qualifier in all four of her seasons. She is a four-year All-GMC Acaademic award recipient and is a four-year member of the MHS orchestra. She is also a two-year member of the Show Choir, the French National Honor Society and the National Honor Society.

Her community service includes the Middletown Regional Hospital, Dream Center and Hope House.

➤ Hunter is the son of Mildred Quinn. He has been a member of the varsity basketball team for four years, where he helped guide the Middies to a 13-9 record as a senior.

Rodney Hunter

Hunter is a four-year All-GMC Academic athlete and a four-year honor roll student.

His community service commitments include volunteering at the Middletown Community Center with basketball tournaments and with MidFest.

The Pigskin Roundball selection committee honor one male and one female senior student-athlete each month during the school year. One male and one female will be chosen from the monthly winners as the Pigskin Roundball Athletes of the Year, and will receive a $4,000 scholarship at a banquet held in May.